A Perfect Day Was the Wedding Day of Anita Breitenbach and George Leiser

Fair Girl Looked Beautiful in Wedding Gown As She Plighted Troth Sunday Last at Home of Parents

"A perfect day" was the wedding day of Miss Anita Breitenbach and George M. Leiser last Sunday and the perfection of the Autumn weather was only excelled by the perfect details which marked the simple but beautiful marraige service of the eldest daughter of Sonoma's pioneer family to the most excellent young man of her choice.

Home, which is a word much cherished by the girls of this household, every one, was chosen in preference to the church for the impressive Episcopalian rites which united the happy young couple. An improvised altar banked with the choicest roses, Shasta daisies in wicker baskets, amarillys, ferns and feathery bamboo was arranged in the living room, and here the bride's father Louis Breitenbach gave her into the keeping of the groom as the Rev. W. T. Holt pronounced the solemn words which united "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." The hour was high noon and at the conclusion of the ceremony the bride, radiant in her rich wedding gown of cream taffeta, with its beautiful corsage of orange blossoms (the same worn by her mother 26 years before) was surrounded by her happy family and showered with congratulations and warmest felicitations. The groom was heartily felicitated also and the handsome young couple then led the way to the dining room where they were given places of honor at the beautifully decorated table at which covers for twenty four had been laid for the wedding breakfast.

Pink and green was the color scheme used for the decorations. A rose covered wedding bell rang out tender memories of the wedding day of the bride's mother and father two decades and more ago and occupied a position of prominence over the table,holding in place dainty pink ribbon streamers which ran down to the four corners of the festive board daintily intermingling with the roses and smilax which strewed the snowy damask. A delicious collation was served, two finely decorated cakes, the wedding cake and the bride's cake occuping a prominent place among the delicacies.

Here merriment held full sway and the scene was a never to be forgotten one; the bride, a picture of radiant young woman hood, surrounded by her charming sisters in attractive costumes of yellow and becoming shades of green, the fond mother looking most attractive in shimmering deep blue silk and the proud father and other relatives both of bride and groom joyous all,celebrating the happy union of the young people. About 3 o'clock the bride stole away and changed her dress for a becoming traveling costume of blue serge and large black velvet hat with touch of silver and amid a shower of rice and good wishes departed in Mr. Leiser's new Dodge car for their honeymoon to the Yosemite.

The presents received were both beautiful and costly and included;

Silver Tea service, Chest of silver, 2½ dozen Teaspoons, 1 dozen Coffee spoons, 2Cold Meat forks, 1 Punch ladle, 1 Pudding server, 1 dozen Knives and Forks, 1 Tea strainer, 1 Cake knife, 2 Cream ladles, 1 Butter knife, 1 Olive fork 12 pieces of Cut Glass, 1 hand-painted Cake plate, 6 hand painted Bread and Butter plates, 1 Dinner set, 3 hand painted Bon Bon dishes, 1 Picture, 1 Fern basket, 2 Flower vases, Hand embroidered doilies, linen etc.

After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Leiser will reside in the cottage lately occupied by the B. Bordson's in the eastern suburbs of town.

Among the out of town guests here for the nuptials were Mrs. Fick, Mrs. Bayer and Mrs. Kopf, Santa Rosa; Mrs. Robert Stewart, Woodland; Mrs. Fred Leiser, Grafton and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knox of Sacremento.

The best of wishes are being extended to the splendid young couple who start life's journey together. The groom is an estimable young man who has won a high place in commercial circles because of his sterling character. The bride is a girl of high ideals and beautiful traits and is beloved by a large circle of friends. The Index-Tribune wishes Mr. and Mrs. Leiser every happiness.

Mrs. T. D. Hall entertained St. Barbara's Guild Tuesday and dispensed pleasing hospitality to the coterie of ladies comprising this most social organization. Pineapple sherbet and cakes were the refreshments served.

Mrs. Geo. Chase was hostess to a number of friends Thursday and card playing was the principal diversion after which dainty refreshments

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haven and family were south bound passengers enroute to San Francisco Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Strum of Caliente Villa went down to San Francisco Tuesday on business.

Geo. W. Reed, N. W. P. station agent leaves today for an extended trip to the scenes of his boyhood in the East.

SORINIS SAY NO UNDUE INFLUENCE

ATTACK ON CHELINI WILL UNWARRANTED DECLARE SONOMA RELATIVES

Miss Edith Chelini a grand daughter of the late Guiseppe Chelini, who died here last yearleaving a big estate has filed a contest of the will alleging undue influence on the part of Mrs. G. Sorini, a daughter, and her husband.

The Sorini s declare that the allegations are wholly unfounded as Mr. Chelini was perfectly rational and when importuned to change his will refused to do so for anyone saying he was competent to make disposition of his property. He had a good memory and head for bueiness up to the last.

At his suggestion Mr. Sorini who had put much of his own money into the business, purchased Chelini's interest in the winery for $5,000. This amount was accepted by Mr. Chelini whereupon Sorini enlarged the cooperage and otherwise improved the place.

The grand-daughter is the daughter of a deceased son and was left $2,000.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

Mrs. Mary Pohley, mother of Ben Pohley formerly on the railroad here but now of Washington, died suddenly Sunday evening. She had been suffering from a tumor but her passing was not unexpected.

Mrs. Pohley was born here in Sonoma over sixty years ago and was a sister of the late Ben Cook. She was a great friend to homeless children and tenderly cared for many a waif and little orphan. Besides her own son, a foster child, Eddie Pohley survives her. Ben Pohley was here for the funeral which was largely attended, the Rev. W. T. Holt officiating at the last sad rites.

BATTO & SONS ACTIVE

Batto & Sons are shipping carload lots of dried pears and prunes this week. The shortage of cars is handicapping this live firm. They are expecting sixteen cars of hay, grain and other consignments.

Mrs. Douglas Church entertained the Jolly Twelve Club Wednesday and was assisted by her two vivacious daughters Helen Schell and Margaret Schell. The book "Daddy Longlegs" was read and discussed after which the company of seventeen sat down to the prettily decorated dining table where pink and white were the prevailing colors and many delicacies were partaken of. It was a most pleasant afternoon.

Brilliant Affair at New Club House

The Sonoma Valley Womans club opened the doors of its handsome new club house to the public last evening and celebrated its fifteenth anniversary. The function was attended by the leading families of the Valley and the club was felicitated on its fine home and complimented highly on its artistic lines. Contractor Warriner came in for his share of praise also and the entire evening was one which reflected the close bond of friendship and good will between the community and this organization which is constantly striving to be a helpful aid in community betterment... The affair of last night will be reviewed more fully from its social side in our next issue.

LECTURE WAS OF HIGH ORDER

The illustrated lecture Thursday evening given by Professor Monsen which is the first of a series of the University of California extension course to be enjoyed in Sonoma was of a high order and the 200 beautiful views and interesting talk on "Mexico" was highly commended by all present.

Prof. Monsen is a fellow of the Royal Geographic and National Geographic Societies and has lectured before the crowned heads. He has also been employed by the U. S. Government and is an authority on the prehistoric races of America. His process of coloring the fine views with which he illustrates his lectures is wonderful and they are highly artistic. "Mexico," the theme of Thursday night's lecture was very timely. A fine crowd turned out and filled the Grammar school auditorium. Dr. W. B. Hays introduced Prof. Monsen and congratulated Sonoma on having the auditorium for such occasions.

Everyone is invited to these lectures, the next taking place, Wednesday the 27th.

REBEKAHS TO GIVE WORTHY BENEFIT

A benefit bazaar and entertainment to be given by the ladies of Verdant Degree Rebekah lodge on the 28th at the I. O. O. F. hall should be patronized most liberally. It is for the homeless children orphanage at Gilroy and last year $55.00 was added to the fund through the good work of Sonoma's excellent lodge. Everything will be sold reasonably and the fancy work is exceptionally fine. The program will be musical.

ENTERTAINED THE "FLYING NEEDLES"

The ladies of the Flying Needles were delightfully entertained by Mesdames R. Hunter and Wm. Hanger Wednesday afternoon. The artistic home was an animated scene as the clever lady members plied their needles and exchanged valuable suggestions on various new stitches, chatting and laughing as they worked. About 4 o'clock the hostesses ushered the company into the pretty dining room where a pleasant hour was spent around the tea table Dainty sandwiches, pineapple punch , Russian tea, cakes, coffee and water melon from the garden of the Hunter-Hanger home were partaken of. Much merriment was caused by the suggestions for costumes for an old times party which the club contemplates. Hoop skirts, bustles and pantalets all came in for discussion and a doll dressed in the quaint costume of 1832 harkening back to Virginia was a treasure unearthed from the family relics of Mrs. Hanger and proved of great interest. The party is scheduled for a week from tonight

Among the members who enjoyed Wednesday's meeting were Mesdames E. Johannsen, W. Hanger, W. McElroy, E. T. Casson, F. Helberg, C. Cutter, Geo. Breitenbach, L. Breitenbach, E. Campbell, R. Hunter Miss Thompson and Mrs. Tucker.

Vintage Season Has Begun With Fine Outlook

Grape Harvest and Wine Making in Full Swing in the Beautiful Vineyards of Sonoma Valley

It is vintage time in the Sonoma Valley and the vineyards while not as heavily laden as in former seasons because of the killing frost in May will yield a crop rich in quality and good in price. In some portions of the valley the crop has been exceptional as for instance on the Madrone Vinyards, where from 700 to 1000 tons is the estimate and the hillside crop of F. Nichelini, whose smaller acreage produced almost 30 tons and brought the top market price. The grapes in that part of the valley were very early to ripen and high in sugar percentage. At Glen Ellen Leo Justi had a good crop and is authority for the statement that $30 per ton was paid for his grapes.

The prices are ranging from $22.50 to$30.00 with $25.00 and $26.50 as the average. The California Wine Association has not figured in the market for Sonoma's grapes this season as all the bargaining has been with the independents of whom Sam Sebastiani and G. Sorini are the foremost dealers.

Mr. Sebastiani purchased 600 ton from a grower at Trenton and many more from growers here and in Mendocino and Napa counties. He is building four tank cars in which to have the grapes consigned to his big cellar here. The cars have a capacity of 25 tons each. His cooperage capacity is 300,000 gallons.

Mr. Sorini isreceiving many tons of grapes daily. Last week 40 ton were received and more are being handled. He expects to make about 100,000 gallons of wine.

Picetti's start to pick their grapes Monday and estimate their crop at about 50 ton which is very short.

The Gundlach - Bundschu Company report a very light vintage.

The weather is ideal for ripening and the warm days have come to a close with sunsets of great brilliancy, the sunset shades of real Tokay and Burgundy laving the hills with autumnal beauty when the day is done.

LITTLE BABE IS CALLED TO REST

Convultions caused from teething caused the little fellows death and sorrow goes out to the grief stricken young mother who mourns his death most keenly as do the fond grand parents and aunt. The tiny remains were laid to rest tenderly in Holy Cross cemetery San Francisco, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Burke and Miss Margaret Burke, former residents were here from their city home Sunday last.

Lightening and thunder which accompanied the rainfall here Thursday struck the California Telephone and Light Company's light wire near Vineburg a broadside and burned out two coils at the sub-station. As a result power and light were cut off for over an hour.

Over 200 linemen were out repairing in San Francisco where the freakish storm was most severe.

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

A Boss is a Fine Art's Product

ONE hears constant allusions these days to the fallacy that there will soon be no bosses; that the people have come to recognize that they should govern themselves and not be told how to do things. This sounds good but it is for from true and those who prate of it will probably be willing to acknowledge that they respect the existence of leaders as active factors in affairs of import and that leadersdo not direct but merely suggest the course which commends itself to those following. The passing of the boss is a conviction that has been made popular by the type of man who is such a high type of boss that he understands the psychological state of the masses and the highly flattering compliment of self government. He therefore masks his high-handed purpose and assures the people that all his ideas are emanating from them. If they hear an echo of their opinions or detect their handiwork in affairs their confidence is immediately won and they become the humble servants of the boss who raises his hands in holy horror at the very name of boss, while attaching the nomenclature to his political enemies with vigor.

Bosses, subtile and otherwise are more astute in their methods than formerly. They realize that as in every thing else the survival of the fittest is the test of endurance, the test of holding the scales at a flattering avoirdupois is dependent on their ability to make a good showing and to make a healthy concealment of many things which would excite the dear people if they were on the inside.

Because of this, the boss of our modern day is not a bad fellow for he has got to make good somehow and it is more pleasant to be bossed by a clever fellow than a bungler. Some bosses really inspire splendid impulse and while not working out its usefulness on a sane basis they at least keep alive interest in problems which quickens evolution and elevates thought.

The tendency to do good has a powerful grip on the world and bosses are exploiting it for all it is worth, but the big stick is not recognized by the mesmerized followers of the modern demagogue. They see only a magic wand waved by a wondrous wizard who is to turn their ideals into golden reality. As an alchemist the thoroughly polished boss is a success and if taxes are more joyfully paid into his coffers, there will be some saving of wear and tear on our kindly disposed citizens. Critics should not waste valuable energy, but wait for a change of type of boss which is sure to come, for bosses there are and the public ever fickle. It is a long jump down the ages from Brutus and Rome to the U. S. A. in 1916 but the chasm has been bridged for bosses innumerable and our only hope is in a well developed intuition which will divine whether bosses are good or bad and if good, that they will not prove too expensive.

Improvements That Would be Popular

CITY authorities should take old Father Time by the forelock now and get the streets and sidewalks leading to and from the depot in good condition before the rains set in. We all remember how our own people plodded through the mud and tried to sidestep the puddles last year and we also realize what a bad impression strangers had of our city housekeeping. The tax payers have put in curbs and gutters and we find the Board eyeing the approaches our citizens have builded to get in and out of their driveways but we respectfully suggest that the street committee remember that people have to get in and out of our city and "the gentle rain from heaven upon the place beneath" and the kind that is not so gentle, forms mud holes and mud puddles. It is nice to ponder on the kind of highways autos should travel but some of us must walk instead of ride and the city dads will receive a lot of commendation if they will get busy in behalf of pedestrians. A little more light in the vicinity of the depot also gentlemen!

OUR MERCHANTS are requested to sit up and take notice at the following fine defense of an intellegent, anxious to be informed farmer who could not get information in his local newspaper about what was in the stores of his own home town and the result thereof;

Recently a merchant of Natchez happened to see a farmer receive a box at the depot and noticed that it was from a mail order house. He also noticed that the goods were right in his line and the same as he carried for years. He immediately approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you the goods you have here for less money than the Chicago house and saved you the freight."

"Then why didn't you do so?" said the farmer. I have taken the local paper for a year and have not seen a line about your selling these or any other goods. This mail order house sends advertising matter to me asking for my trade, and it gets it. If you have any bargains, why don't you put them in the paper so we can see what they are?"-Natches (Miss.) Democrat.

THE wing of the Republican party which has been at the rule or ruin game in this State may soft pedal the reform stuff now that they have a chance to control. It was a fight for control and domenation, and ruination was the price all but paid. Any means to an end is the politicians code of honor. We have no doubt that the Republican party will be perfection from now on.

PADEREWSKI, the great pianist is going into the stock raising business here in California. Perhaps he will weigh his stock in so much as he has made a life study of scales.

THE IDEA of City managers will be fully discussed at the next meeting of the League of California Municipalities. The practical results of some cities employing experts to manage their affairs and their growth will be listened to with keen interest.

BIGELOW BREAKS OUT AGAIN

COUNTY AUDITOR ASKED NOT TO PAY FOR SONOMA ROAD WORK

County Auditor C. A. Pool has been asked by J. K. Bigelow towithhold payment for the new asphaltum road work being done in the Sonoma Valley until the completion of the contract A notification was received by the County Auditor on Saturday. Some contention has arisen over the matter, it would appear, from reports received here as to the route that should be followed in carrying out the improvement. (Democrat)

As usual Mr. Bigelow is "spilling the beans." As a trouble maker he would be entitled to a diploma only that his percentage of success is lacking.

It is obvious that it would be nice to help get rich fellows like Mr. Bigelow and the exclusive set the road past their places, but after all the taxpayer and average citizen upon whom the obligations of keeping up our roads is a real hardship are entitled to consideration. Into the tills and jeans of these people the money from our resort owners is a big item and they are broad minded enough and far seeing enough to concede much to the success and prosperity of the capital invested in our health and pleasure resorts whose future is identical with the development of a modern system of road making and maintenance. It is right and proper that we develop the main artery of travel which leads to the wonderful mineral springs with which Sonoma Valley is blessed and to our County Seat. Let not the importance of this great issue of road building just being successfully launched be over shadowed by objections from a source that is actuated by malice toward Supervisor Weise and certain resort owners. Let us have this road and all the other good roads we can possibly see our way clear to get.

The taxes paid along the improved route of travel also amount to considerable as there has been much subdividing of acreage in the vicinity of the Springs and many property owners now pay taxes on town lot valuation. As to the strip of road from the city limits to the El Verano bridge much work had already been done on it and there was not a crying need for the further improvement of it as there was on the portion of the road fixed.

MACHINIST FROM TORPEDO BOAT HERE

Leland Volquardsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Volquardsen of this place who is enlisted in the United States Navy and is second machinist on the torpedo boat destroyer"Stewart" is home on a 30 days furlough. Volquardsen is a fine type of the young men in the service of Uncle Sam. He is six feet three in heighth and the picture of rugged health. He has sailed from the northern most boundries of Alaskan waters to Mexico several times and assisted in the rescue work of American refugees from Mexico and also in the search for Japanese intrenchments in lower californian waters. The Stewart, while an old type of boat, took highest honors in the Pacific squadron for that class of craft but Leland expects shortly to be transfered to one of the new turbine destroyers now being built at Mare Island. He has been advanced steadily in the ranks and now draws $60.00 per month and is in line for higher promotion. He speaks highly of our Navy and the treatment given enlisted men. The standards have been raised steadily since his enlistment and he encourages young men particularly mechanics to join.

Volquardsen asys that it is the general sentiment among those informed on conditions that the Mexicans are a helpless lot of people, more to be pitied than warred on. He condemns the American element that gets into trouble there and declares that they are regular "desert rats" and need no help from the country they claim but which they really dishonor. He says the Mexicans are a bad lot,many of them but not dangerous to any degree. No Japanese boats or colonies of import were found along Mexican waters.

A unique souvenir made from a 6 inch shell was brought home by the young naval man to his mother. It is a lamp bowl of great beauty and is a clever piece of work.

FAMOUS COOKS AT BARBECUE

Mike Topete and Tony Peterson, the chefs for the Moose barbecue are a famous team and have had many compliments on past feasts which they prepared. At one time they cooked a chapin (shell fish stew) for 300 members of the San Francisco Press Club at Belvedere.

The Moose feed took 168 pounds of beef and mutton and 100 pounds of Mexican beans.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harris of San Francisco have been guests at "Rocky Haven." They were close friends of the late H. C. Whiting and were most pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Whiting while here.

WEIGH WATER PROPOSITION AT THIS SEASON

Editor, Index-Tribune;

There appears to be no doubt that the good old town of Sonoma is in a dilemma. It will have to solve the water problem in some way, and it will have to do this soon.

There is no need of street improvements, nor of sidewalks and gutters, unless there be an adequate fire protection to safeguard the property. Not to make these provisions is neglecting a duty.

There are two horns to the dilemma, and it will require a little investigation on the part of the townspeople to choose either one horn or the other.

There could not be any more propitious time than the present.

Take a look at the Lewis system; investigate its present source; its present supply of water on hand; the capacity of its reservior and its wire-wound wooden mains, and ask yourselves whether this system will solve the problem.

Then take a look at the near-by system of the Vallejo heirs; measure the yield of the Lachryma Montis spring;compare the quality of the two waters, if there be any in the Lewis system to compare with;and weigh carefully the facilities for a high pressure fire system which shall never lack the water, whether it be in the middle of winter or at thevery height of the dry season.

Do this carefully and deliberately and choose the proper horn; but do not wait until the rains begin; do it now, for it would not constitute a fair test to await the beneficent replenishment of heaven before making this simple comparison.

DELTA IOTA GAMMA PARTY

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

The Delta Iota Gamma fraternity members and their young lady friends were given a most enjoyable reception by the mothers of the young men comprising the organization, in the club rooms last Tuesday evening. It was given to promote sociability and interest in the good work being fostered by the organizers of the fraternity and from the way each and every one entered into the spirit of the occasion there is great enthusiasm evident and a future for Sonoma's chummy organization. No creed or school status is taken into consideration but all young men to the number of thirty will be welcomed the only qualification being a mutually social side and honest intent to live up to the ambitions of the charter members. They aim to make our future citizens better for having belonged to the Delta Iota Gamma. Tuesday night the club rooms were prettily decorated by the patronesses of the affair Mesdames Foster, Johannsen, Hotz, Volquardsen, Breitenbach, Holt, Von Hacht and Miss Clewe. There were dancing, cards, music, games and refreshments. Everyone was happy and all had a good time.

The present members are Murray Foster, Harold Hotz, Henry Palmer, Clyde Johannsen, Stephen Duhring, Carl Von Hacht, Wm. Perry, W. T. Holt and the Prestwood brothers.

VINEBURG

Albert Groskopf Jr., for many years head teamster and motor truck man for the firm of John Batto and Sons of this place, started on his vacation trip on Sunday last in his Ford racer, and during his absence will visit the principal cities and points of interest in central and southern California. His many friends wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return to "HomeSweetHome".

Julius Huger, a veteran employee of the Alaska fishing companies returned home last week after his annual cruise to the far north. Welcome home Julius.

A certain party has put us wise that the Box Car Improvement Club at its next meeting will prefer charges against Gus Rouque, chief engineer of the fire department, and marshal E. Forni, for neglect of duty and will not allow them to draw their salary of $1.15 a year until after the next Grand Jury meets.

Mrs. Friedman and daughter of San Francisco, now "summering" at Sonoma Grove, on Monday last were guests of John Pluth at Vineburg Inn.

The summer residence of Mr.Wm. Oberhaus on the Napa road was entered by burglars on Monday night and he reports his loss to be over thirty-five cents. He rang up Jack Murray but the line was busy.

Most all of this season's pack of dried fruit is under cover and shipping will soon begin.

Buena Vista can boast of its famous Singing Club but it has none the best of Vineburg,for Vineburg has a crack Shooting Club, and among its members aresuch prominent citizens as Frank Rhode, Jos. Groskopf, Otto Rehagg, Enrico Forni John Pluth,Steve Griffith, Dutch Vincent and Ex Mayor Jacob Mayer.
At the last shooting contest of the club Mr. L. Martin won six "geese" by scoring seven bulls eyes and carried off the honors of the day. John Pluth and Frank Rhode tied for second place, one hit one side of the target and the other, the other side. Now, who wins? Leave it to Congress. Otto Rehagg says if the target was as big as the draw bridge at Wingo he could hit it easy.

The first shipment of dried fruit of the season left Batto & Sons siding Thursday. One carload of choice apples went to Santa Rosa and one carload of extra fine prunes 17 ton in this consignment went to the C. F. C. A. at Healdsburg.

Would You Throttle the Progress of California?

That is exactly what you will do if you vote to adopt either of the two prohibition amendments.

California is a license State—it is wealthy—it is growing—it has prospered in every line of endeavor.

Look at Kansas

Here is a prohibition State whose Governor stated officially February 23, 1915:

"Our assessed valuation actually decreased five million dollars last year; our population has not increased and business conditions, which were then satisfactory, are now much less favorable. Our farmers face uncertain and unstable markets; an unusual number of laboring men are out of employment and business conditions are far from satisfactory."

That is what prohibition has done for Kansas.

Vote for Progress by Voting Against Prohibition

Prohibition is an experiment which has always proven a failure. It does not prohibit. It destroys established enterprise and outlaws legitimate business, substituting hypocrisy and lawlessness for license and regulation.

CARD OF THANKS TO THE MOOSE

For they are jolly good fellows
And nobody will deny
The Moose Social Club
Had a barbecue oh me! oh my!
At the Harris ranch on the shady creek
Where the lights and shadows
Play hide and seek.
A fire was builded
And a royal feast
Was prepared for 20 hours
At least
The meats wereroasted by chef
Topete
And believe me he cant be beat,
His wife too, she cooked the beans
Which were the best ever,said fats and said leans
They had French bread most wondrous
And plates, forks and knives;
The seasoning was elegant from chili to chives
They had pop without kick and some with a punch
That we were all thirsty they had the right hunch.
The carver was Darling
The waiters right trim
Lewis surveyed the crowd, you know him
It was great and the olives were good
And so was the coffee and all of the food.
After the eats there was music and speech;
Santa Rosa's Moose gave a stunt each.
The good of the order, the Orphans retreat
Was told in a fashion that could not be beat.
McDevitt was toast master, the Mayor too was there
Paul Robin and Geo. Stickle had nary a care;
We all were happy, the Glooms chased away
As we dined with the Moose on this right merry day.
And just as a posterpt, the yellow jacket bold
Tried to send a telegram so I am told
Ask Roy or ask Mrs Pauli
Oh you Moose!
We thank you!
